Annotations

1. Election of officers

In accordance with rule 18 of the rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council, each year, at the commencement of its first meeting, the Committee elects its Chairperson and four Vice-Chairpersons. In accordance with rule 19, Bureau members are eligible for re-election. One of the Vice-Chairpersons is later designated also to serve as Rapporteur.

2. Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters

In accordance with rule 13 of the rules of procedure of the Council, the Committee shall, at the beginning of each session, after the election of its officers, adopt the agenda for that session on the basis of the provisional agenda. The provisional agenda for the current session was approved by the Council in its decision 2004/211.

In accordance with Council resolution 1996/31, paragraph 32 (a), and rule 84 of the rules of procedure of the Council, several non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Council have requested to be heard by the Council in connection with items in the provisional agenda for its substantive session of 2004 (E/2004/100).

Documentation

Deferred requests for reclassification: memorandum by the Secretary-General (E/C.2/2004/CRP.3)

(b) New applications for consultative status and new requests for reclassification

The Committee will consider new applications for consultative status and new requests for reclassification from non-governmental organizations and act thereon.

Documentation

New applications for consultative status: memorandum by the Secretary-General (E/C.2/2004/R.2 and R.2/Add.1-14)

New requests for reclassification: memorandum by the Secretary-General (E/C.2/2004/R.3)

4. Quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Council

In accordance with the arrangements for consultation with non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Council that were approved by the Council in its resolution 1996/31, such organizations are required to submit, every fourth year, a report on their activities as regards the support they have given to the work of the United Nations.

(a) Deferred quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council

The Committee will consider quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations on their activities deferred from previous sessions of the Committee held in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003.

(b) Review of quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council

The Committee will also consider quadrennial reports submitted by organizations on their activities during the period from 1999 to 2002.

Documentation

Quadrennial reports (E/C.2/2004/CRP.2 and E/C.2/2004/2 and Add.1-7)

5. Strengthening of the Non-Governmental Organizations Section of the Secretariat

In view of the expansion of the functions and responsibilities of the Non-Governmental Organizations Section of the Secretariat to meet the demand of a growing number of applications for consultative status, as well as the demands of a larger and more active non-governmental organizations community, the Committee decided, at its 2002 substantive and resumed sessions, that the strengthening of the Section should continue to be a priority during its 2004 session and reaffirmed its strong support to the ongoing process of strengthening the Section, including the "Paperless Committee" initiative.

Documentation

E/C.2/2004/CRP.6-9

6. Review of the methods of work of the Committee: implementation of Council resolution 1996/31, including the process of accreditation of representatives of non-governmental organizations, and Council decision 1995/304

(a) Process of accreditation of representatives of non-governmental organizations

The Committee will continue to consider the issue of the accreditation of representatives of non-governmental organizations and their participation in the work of the United Nations.

(b) Consideration of issues in the agenda of the informal working group

At its 2000 session, the Committee established an informal working group, open to all interested members of the Committee, to review its methods of work, including accreditation issues, procedures, coordination with the secretariat of the Commission on Human Rights, enhancement of the non-governmental organizations information process and security issues. At its 2002 resumed session, the Committee reviewed a number of issues that have been placed on the agenda of the informal working group and decided that the group should continue its work. The Secretariat will report to the Committee on the subject.

(c) Other related matters

The Committee will consider the following issues:

(i) Follow up on the report of the Panel of Eminent Persons on United Nations-Civil Society Relations;

(ii) Report on the follow-up to the sixtieth session of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights (15 March-23 April 2004);

(iii) Matters pertaining to reinstatement of consultative status of non-governmental organizations in cases where consultative status was suspended by the Council;

(iv) Non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Council that have merged with other non-governmental organizations and wish to maintain their consultative status under a new name;

(v) Non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Council that wish to withdraw their consultative status.

7. Implementation of Council decision 2001/295

In its decision 2001/295, the Council, recalling its decision 1996/302, decided that the non-governmental organizations on the Roster of the Commission on Sustainable Development (see Council decision 1993/220) should apply for consultative status with the Council as would any other organization, as outlined in its resolution 1996/31. Those applications would be considered as expeditiously as possible under an agenda item of the Committee. The Committee will consider applications deferred from previous sessions.

Documentation

Implementation of Council decision 2001/295: memorandum by the Secretary-General (E/C.2/2004/CRP.4)

8. Consideration of special reports

Documentation

Note by the Secretary-General on special reports (E/C.2/2004/3)

9. General voluntary trust fund in support of the United Nations Non-Governmental Organizations Informal Regional Network

In its decision 2002/225, the Council established the general voluntary trust fund, and requested the Non-Governmental Organizations Section to identify and obtain the necessary financial, human and technical resources needed to carry out, in partnership with non-governmental organizations, Governments and other interested stakeholders, the development projects envisaged in the future framework of the United Nations Informal Regional Network (IRENE).

Documentation

Update note on the trust fund in support of IRENE and on the regional report (E/C.2/2004/CRP.10)

10. Provisional agenda and documentation for the 2005 session of the Committee

In its resolution 1894 (LVII), the Council requested the Secretary-General to submit at each session of a subsidiary body of the Council a draft provisional agenda for its following session, together with information relating to documentation.

11. Adoption of the report of the Committee

The Committee is required to report to the Council on its regular session.
